

Today we are going to learn about different types of sentences.

WALT: understand different types of sentences.

Success Criteria:

Have I...

- + sorted the sentences with support?
- + sorted the sentences?
- + written my own example of each sentence?

Do you know any different types of sentences?

A simple sentence has a subject and one verb:

Traction Man jumped.

He guarded the toast.

Can you write a simple sentence about
Traction Man?

A compound sentence is formed when you join two ideas with a coordinating conjunction (and, but, so, or).

Traction Man has colourful trousers and he likes zooming in his jet powered trainer.

He carries a long rope but he has to be careful that it doesn't get tangled.

Can you write a compound sentence about Traction Man?

A complex sentence is formed when you join your ideas with a subordinating conjunction (although, because, if, since, when).

Traction Man is brave because he went searching in the foamy water.

When he has his rocket boots on, he zooms through the sky.

Can you tell your adult/pet/toys a complex sentence about Traction Man?

Task: cut up the sentences on your worksheet for today and decide which column to put them in.

Simple Sentence Subject and one verb	Compound Sentence (and, but, so, or)	Complex Sentence (although, because, if, since, when)

Challenge: Write a sentence of your own in each box.

Task: cut up the sentences on your worksheet for today and decide which column to put them in.

Simple Sentence Subject and one verb	Compound Sentence (and, but, so, or)	Complex Sentence (although, because, if, since, when)
Traction Man jumped He swam in the foamy water. Traction Man volunteered for a special mission. He guarded the toast.	Traction Man has colourful trousers and he likes zooming in his jet-powered trainer. He carries a long rope but he has to be careful that it doesn't get tangled. He has fluorescent flippers so he can swim better in the water.	When he has his rocket boots on, he zooms through the sky. If Traction Man didn't swim quickly, he would have been caught by the poisonous dishcloth. Although he volunteered for the mission, he was still a little bit nervous. Traction Man is brave because he went searching in the foamy water.

Challenge: Write a sentence of your own in each box.

Cool down:

Go through the answers and check to see if you were correct.